WINDOW MAINTENANCE

Cleaning

The exterior surfaces of the Farley window, will over time collect a layer of surface dirt depending on local atmospheric conditions.

Normally rainfall will be sufficient to loosen and wash away this accumulation of surface dirt.

If you wish to do a more thorough cleaning of the window the following procedures should be followed:

P.V.C. – A mild solution of household cleaner such as Tide, Spic & Span or dishwashing detergent may be used. For stubborn stains, a spray cleaner such as Fantastic may be used.

Glass - Use any commercial glass cleaner available in the supermarkets or a solution of vinegar and water.

Screen – A mild solution such as used to clean the P.V.C. frame applied with a soft cloth and rinsed off with a garden hose.

CAUTION:

Do not use harsh abrasives on either the glass, screen or P.V.C. frame.
Do not cut the silicone needle bead between the glass and the P.V.C. frame.
Handle the screen carefully as torn screens are not covered by this limited warranty.

MECHANICAL MAINTENANCE

Tilt latches should not need service for the life of the window. Occasionally due to dust or dirt collection the latches might become hard to move. A slight spray of clear silicone lubricant will usually free the latch. Pivot bars and pivot shoes will also, in some cases collect dirt and grime. A spray of clear silicone lubricant will in most cases alleviate the problem.

Weatherstripping may become worn over the life of the window, and should, if necessary, be replaced. Loose or worn weatherstripping is one of the prime reasons for heat loss and air infiltration in windows. The Farley window uses Schlegel Fin-Seal™ weatherstripping exclusively and may be purchased at any window company selling replacement parts.
